

LESŁAW KULA, MEMBER OF THE SUPERVISORY BOARD

Master of Law from the Faculty of Law and Administration at the University of Warsaw and Master of History from the University of Warsaw, attorney-at-law. After completing his studies, he worked as a scientific secretary at the Center for Documentation and Social Studies, as a publicist and editor at the NOVUM Publishing Institute, and later as director at the SONOR Publishing Institute. He subsequently served as director and editor-in-chief at the POLONIA Publishing House. He has held other managerial positions, including President of the Management Board of POLARTIS S.A. and EMIASTA.PL S.A. He has served in various supervisory board roles in State Treasury companies, as well as in public and private companies. From 2002 to 2024, he was a lecturer in legal sciences at WSZECHNICA POLSKA University of Applied Sciences in Warsaw and has been a member of the University Senate since 2003. He collaborated with the Warsaw Voivode, including serving as a liquidator at WFTS POLLENA PP, and from 1994 to 2007 acted as a bankruptcy trustee and court supervisor at the Warsaw Commercial Court. Between 2000 and 2008, he cooperated with the Ministry of the Treasury on the promotion and privatization of State Treasury companies. He is the former long-term President of the Management Board of VARENA GROUP sp. z o.o., a company providing advisory and comprehensive legal services for business entities. He participated in the Study for Advisers of Indebted Enterprises organized by the Development Law Institute (Rome–London). Member of the Supervisory Board of the company since 2020. He meets the independence criteria. He runs a law firm in Warsaw.