

LESŁAW KULA, MEMBER OF THE SUPERVISORY BOARD

Master degree at the Faculty of Law and Administration at the University of Warsaw and Master degree at the Faculty of History at the University of Warsaw, attorney at law. After graduation, he worked as a scientific secretary of the Center for Documentation and Social Studies, a journalist and editor at the NOVUM Publishing Institute and director at the SONOR Publishing Institute, and then as the director and editor-in-chief of the POLONIA Publishing House. He has worked in other management positions, including: as President of the Management Board of POLARTIS S.A. and EMIASTA. PL .S.A. He passed the exam for candidates for members of supervisory boards in state-owned companies. He has held various positions in supervisory boards in state-owned companies, both public and private. Since 2002 he has been associated with, among others as a lecturer with the WSZECHNICA POLSKA Academy of Applied Sciences in Warsaw, a member of the Senate of this university. He teaches subjects in the field of legal sciences. He cooperated with the Governor of Warsaw, among others as a liquidator at WFTS POLLENA PP, in the years 1994-2007 a trustee and court supervisor at the Warsaw Commercial Court, between 2000-2008 he cooperated with the Ministry of the Treasury in the promotion and privatization of State Treasury companies. Former president of the Management Board of VARENA GROUP sp.z o.o. providing consultancy and comprehensive legal services to business entities. He took part in the Study of Debt Business Advisors organized by the Rome-London Development Law Institute. Member of the Supervisory Board of the Company since July 2020. Meets the criterion of independence. He runs a law firm in Warsaw.